

PERFORMANCES AND EVENTS

Bridget Corrigan, Erin Butchek, and College of Charleston Students

Over the course of AWAKENING: MOTION, there will be various dance and musical performances throughout the Upper Peninsula to express the fact that people own the streets. Observing and participating in planned, well-organized group performances like crosswalk dances and synchronized Contra dance lines will afford community members, local artists, and other residents to interface with one another about mobility-related issues and celebrate the first steps towards envisioning a more interconnected Upper Peninsula. Performances will take place at the temporary Lowcountry Rapid Transit Hub & Community Space, along crosswalks, and at bus stops. Take back the streets...WITH DANCE!
